

FIRESIDE CHATS

Talks on Indigenous Knowledges

TUESDAYS
11:30 AM TO 12:30 PM

MIGIZII AGAMIK
IN THE CIRCLE ROOM

This free series is presented by the Indigenous Student Centre. Everyone is welcome!

The weekly chats will be led by Elders and Traditional Teachers

January 16, 2018 – Elder Norman Meade (Métis) and Elder Marlene Kayseas (Anishinabe) – Métis Culture and Traditional Spirituality.

January 23, 2018 – Tina Keeper (Cree) – Tales From My Family.

January 30, 2018 – Dr. Moneca Sinclair (Cree) – Indigenous Foods Now and Then.

February 6, 2018 – Dr. Laara Fitznor (Cree) – Indigenous Philosophies in Everyday Living; Path to Home.

February 13, 2018 – Kevin Lamoureux (Non-Status Ojibway) – “Facing Conflicting Values in Post-Secondary.”

February 20, 2018 – Reading Week.

February 27, 2018 – Leah Fontaine (Dakota/Anishinabe/ Métis) – Spirit Mending in Art and Education by Artists/Scholars.

March 6, 2018 – Frank Deer (Mohawk) – The Moral Landscape of Indigenous Consciousness: Navigating Spirituality, Religion and Language.

March 13, 2018 – Dr. Justin Rasmussen (Métis) – What Does it Mean to be Métis? My Personal Journey in Investigating the Lives of My Ancestors.

March 20, 2018 – Elders Gathering.

March 27, 2018 – Carl Stone (Anishinabe) – Tobacco and Smudging.

April 3, 2018 – Elder Mark Hall (Dakota) – Dakod Wichoca.

To find out more:

isc@umanitoba.ca | 204-474-8850 | umanitoba.ca/indigenous

UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA